Sergeant Roepke	Okay. Um, okay, well, yeah, and their concern like I said, is that you're over here. They're concerned that, ah, you know, you're harassing them and so basically...hold on... 6-2 can you just go make contact with the RP? They're concerned that, yeah, they're feeling like they're being harassed and stuff, is kinda what it comes down to. So, is there-I mean-is there? Obviously, this is a public place, you know you have a right to, ah, take pictures in a public place or video or, or anything like that. There's not an issue with that. Um, but if you're doin' it in a means to intimidate them or to harass them, then it becomes a problem. Obvious-, I'm sur-I know you know this, but.	1:50
Sally Ness	Well, yeah. And they know that I am not doing that. Um...	2:32
Sergeant Roepke	Okay.	2:35
Sally Ness	I've registered a complaint, because the buses are supposed to have a clear area for pick up and drop off. And they don't abide by that and the City has not addressed it. Um. Also, I've contacted the State of Minnesota because of the number of tardies. Turns out they	2:36

Sally Ness	And so I document.	3:17
Sergeant Roepke	Why is it...what do you mean it's not a neighborhood park?	3:19

Sally Ness	Um, I started taking pictures, 'cause when I said to the City they're overusing the property. The City said, "oh no-no." They'd say like when on Fridays when they fill up the streets, they go, "oh no, it's just a few times a year." It's like, no, it's every Friday.	5:40
Sergeant Roepke	Mm-hmm.	5:55
Sally Ness	So, I had to take pictures to show...[overlapping]	5:56

Sally Ness	No. I'm documenting. [overlapping]	7:17
Sergeant Roepke	Here's the thing. We're bordering on a harassment issue. Okay? Because they're, they're concerned because you're here a lot. And they're taking it as an intimidation kind of thing. And I'm not taking sides on this, on, on either side. But what I'm saying, is that if- if, the-the this behavior type kind of continues and they're viewing it as intimidation and if you're, um, doing it to intimidate them...	7:17
Sally Ness	I'm definitely not doing it to intimidate them. In fact...[overlapping]	7:42
Sergeant Roepke	...then-then its-its well, okay, but then we're bordering on-on charges against you, which we don't want to have to go down there either, right? [overlapping]	7:45
Sally Ness	Well then you know...[overlapping]	7:50
Sergeant Roepke	I mean, if you want to take some pictures, come and take some pictures and then move on. [overlapping]	7:50

Officer Meyer	Well that's, that's how they feel it over there, that you're harassing them. So.	8:39
Sergeant Roepke	Yeah, so, yeah. [overlapping]	8:41
Sally Ness	So that's what determines the police coming, is how they feel about it? [overlapping]	8:42
Sergeant Roepke	Well... you... Sally. Yeah, yeah 'cause if anybody, if you felt intimidated by them, we'd come for the same reason. Okay? [overlapping]	8:43

SPEAKER	TRANSCRIPTION	TIME
Sergeant Roepke	So... Sally just stop and listen now. Okay, you've obviously done your homework on laws, City Ordinances, state statutes that kind of thing as far as this goes. Do some homework on harassment. Make sure you're not doing-the violating that statute, okay? Because if you are, we're going to end up with charges against you and that's not something we want to do and that's not something you want, is that right? So, if you want to take pictures to document what you need to document, stop for 30 seconds, take pictures you need and move on. But if you're sitting here and watching what's going on...[overlapping]	8:53
Sally Ness	No, 30 seconds doesn't work because I'm documenting how many students are tardy. Oh, for instance again I've contacted the state and said what is their tardy policy. [overlapping]	9:26
Sergeant Roepke	Okay. Well, I'm, okay. I'm not...that's fine, Sally, I'm not...Sally I've heard all this I don't want to get into the dynamics of everything you're talking about. All I'm saying is you're bordering on harassing. And that's not a road you want to go down. So, you obviously done a lot of homework. Read up on harassment statutes and make sure you're not violating it, okay? Are we good?	9:31
Sally Ness	Um, you-you said you're not taking sides, but I'm here for a specific purpose, documenting uses that are not following state statute...[overlapping]	10:08
Sergeant Roepke	Okay, and...[overlapping]	10:12

Sally Ness	No, but why would I?	10:16
Sergeant Roepke	Okay, if they're sitting across the street from your house, taking pictures of your house, we're going to have the same problem with them. Okay?	10:20
Sally Ness	They-they have, and I have. That's what...[overlapping]	10:26
Sergeant Roepke	Okay. They have? Well, okay. [overlapping]	10:27
Sally Ness	You interrupted me. I was telling you, gonna tell you that, I actually went with an attorney to the City... [overlapping]	10:28

Sally Ness	So, and, and then [overlapping] when I was there and you know, you know, said what had happened, she said well those people were there to protest. I said, there was no protest going on. That wasn't, you know. And then I said, you know she goes I don't believe you because you took so long to register your complaint.	11:04
Officer Meyer	What, what do you want to happen? [overlapping]	11:20
Sally Ness	Um.	11:23
Sergeant Roepke	She wants them gone.	11:23

So, that's I'm just let- gonna to leave it at that. Like I said, read the statute make sure you're not violating it so you don't get a charge on you. Okay?	11:43
